The foregoing report does not need much comment from the secretary. It tells its own tale and that is that very few among the twelve or thirteen thousand members of the Brethren church have paid any money toward our general mission during the months of August and September, and inasmuch as the missionaries must live whether people pay or not, it was the lot of your unworthy secretary to furnish a part of the money for a time. But brethren, I have confidence in you and I hope you will not allow that to be shaken.

WM. H. MILLER, Sec of M. B.

Dayton, Ohio, Mission

It is certainly very gratifying to hear of the continued enthusiasm that permeates the brotherhood. After a long and hard struggle we are beginning to see the fruits of our labors. From all parts of the brotherhood come the most encouraging reports.

The National Conference made an unprecedented record for enthusiasm for the college, for the missions and the kingdom of God in general.

Now comes still more glorious news from the State of the Hoosiers. Well it seems that they just have the grace, the grit and the greenbacks out there. Those are the requisites for the advancement of Christ's kingdom. It must be apparent to every close observer that the Brethren church is getting in earnest as never before. She is awaking to her opportunities and her possibilities, and there certainly cannot exist even a shadow of a doubt in the minds of the most skeptical but that God has great things in store for us.

The Dayton Mission is struggling hard to overcome the difficulties that stare us in the face. We have been trying to obey the Savior's injunction to his disciples after feeding the five thousand. We have been trying to gather up the fragments that nothing be lost, and I believe we can truthfully say that we have partially succeeded.

Yea, the difficulties that are still before us must vanish if God be our helper. If God be for us who can be against us.

Brother Henry Murr donated us a nice sum for pulpit chairs, and thus God is still blessing us. The young people are working hard to buy an organ and they will succeed for they have undaunted courage.

Two more have been baptized at Winchester, making thus far seven additions during the summer months. Our revival meeting will begin here November 17th, and we ask an interest in your prayers.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Bosenburger took place in the Winchester church on the 12th inst. Her age was 34 years, 1 month and 20 days. She leaves three children, husband, father, mother, two brothers and two sisters to mourn her departure. She was a member of the Methodist church, but worshipped and worked in the Brethren church. May God comfort the sorrowing friends.

J. L. KIMMEL.

Chicago Mission

Since Brother Talley's departure for the west, nothing has appeared in the EVANGELIST from the Chicago Mission and fearing our friends may conclude that we have "mysteriously disappeared," I wish to let them know that we are very much alive and in evidence. It would please us to have some of our out of town friends drop in and see the grand meetings we are having conducted by different members of our Mission. Especially our Wednesday night meetings. They are simply glorious.

When Brother Talley left, he assigned these meetings to the care of Brother McColloster who has succeeded in making them immensely interesting by arranging a special program for each Wednesday night. Last week the meeting was given over to the ladies. Sister Talley opened with prayer and read the lesson while Sister Miller lead the singing and the discourse of the evening was delivered by Sister Shipley who kept those present spellbound for over half an hour.

It was her first attempt at any thing of the kind and she feared her timidity would cause a failure but she asked the Lord to fill her mouth with words which He did very generously. This week's meeting was arranged differently, Brother McColloster selecting passages of scripture and assigning them to different members to read and speak from with the result that the meeting was a grand success and one of the best I ever attended. Following are the passages selected and the names of those to whom they were assigned:

Matthew 5 : 16, Mrs. Talley.
Exodus 9 : 16, E. W. Ellis.
John 2 : 5, Mrs. Miller.
Numbers 22 : 38, Mrs. Shipley.
Job 13 : 15, Mrs. Esserman.
John 7 : 46, W. H. Stridiron.
Isaiah 55 : 6, Mable Shipley.
John 14 : 9, Thurman Talley.
Revelation 5 : 9, Frances Esserman.
Galations 2 : 20, Clara McColloster.
Romans 8 : 38, 39, Edna Ellis.
Ecclesiastes 6 : 1, Mamie Talley.
Exodus 12 : 23, James McColloster.

If our friends will look up these different references they will see what beautiful passages they are, and the opening they give for a good talk. The program was carried out to the letter and it was delightfully surprising to discover the talents possessed and displayed by most of our members. These meetings will continue in like manner until the return of Brother Talley. I must not overlook mentioning that our Sunday School
